

CANON - printing, copying

General information

- Service scope - Canon multifunction device is available for staff, researchers, faculty and students.
- Identity - Only users with network account can use it (scan, print, copy). These activities are always bound to individual username.
- Identification - For identification use your ID card (self registered), network account or PIN.
 - If you have ID card issued by Charles University, use this one preferably.
 - If you have only anonymous entrance ID card (red color), you can use any ID card, which CANON printer can recognize (e.g., OpenCard, Lítačka, library ID card etc...).
 - You can also always log in with your network username and password.
- ID card registration - Each user registers (assigns) individually his/her ID card via CANON display control panel (to pair ID card with an account)
- Billing - Student's should be aware, that printing and copying activities are billed regularly (usually on monthly basis).
- Printer driver - You need to have proper driver installed to be able to use CANON printer. Printing queue's name is secureinput.
- Pick your printing - After you send print job to secureinput printer (printing queue), you can print it at CANON printer, just identify yourself with your ID card or PIN.
